

Code of Ethics and Logo Usage Terms & Conditions

Code of Ethics

These are the principles that we, the members of AOLP, shall abide by:

- We shall exemplify the qualities of professionalism, integrity, and excellence in servicing our clients in the outdoor lighting industry.
- We shall encourage and participate in education and research within our industry.
- We shall understand and obey the laws governing our profession.
- We shall apply the AOLP Standards of Low Voltage Landscape and Architectural Lighting and NEC Standards for line voltage in our business endeavors and shall strive to promote these standards in the Industry.
- We shall not mislead, through advertising or other means, existing or prospective clients about the results that can be achieved through the use of our services, nor shall we state that we can achieve results by means that violate this code, the AOLP By-Laws, or any governmental law and/or regulation.
- We shall promote creativity throughout the profession of outdoor lighting.
- We shall promote diversity by not conducting or participating in any employment practices or professional activities that discriminate on the basis of race, religion, gender, national origin, age, disability, or sexual orientation.
- We shall continually strive, at all times, to protect our environment and to promote the betterment of the outdoor lighting industry through our dedication to honest and proper business practices.
- We shall, as a member of AOLP, conduct ourselves in a professional manner by placing the association's goals first when participating in any sponsored activities.
- We shall advance the professionalism of the AOLP by refraining from making disparaging statements or otherwise criticizing colleagues or the AOLP in any public forum

Use of Logo- Terms & Conditions
